This week

As far as your BE knows, we have no program today. If you are today's speaker, please accept our apologies. Our Bulletin Editor is a goofball.

Next week

Your BE is so out of it, he has no idea.

Last Week

Our District Governor, Lion Richard Davis, came visiting and gave us his vision of what he wants from his Lion year. "From Many Hearts, One Heart" is his motto and he wants us to increase membership so we have more hands to help on projects.

Winners

Lion IVP Todd ADAMS has Free Fines, while Lion Bedford PINKARD is our Greeter. Lion P Kalani JOSE was here when his name was called, so he will pocket the $5 Attendance Prize if he manages to make it today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Kalani tried to make it a twofer, but was unable to garner the approximate $240 prize. The rest of the club was heartbroken for him.

Pt. Mugu Airshow

We are going to need a lot of help in two weeks time. We are committed to manning a souvenir booth at the Pt. Mugu Airshow on both Saturday and Sunday. We are required to have 7 people there from 7 AM to 5 PM. Some of us have volunteered for all day on one of the days, but if we had two shifts of 7 people for 2 days, we'd need 28 volunteers, which is more than our total active membership.

If you have spouses, kids, friends who might want to become Noontimers when they see how much fun we have, then invite them and let Lion Dave TAPIE know. We really need the manpower.
