This week

As far as your BE knows, we have no program today. If you are today's speaker, please accept our apologies. Our Bulletin Editor is a goofball.

Next week

Your BE is so out of it, he has no idea.

Last Week

We either had no program or we had two. Lion P Kalani JOSE's guest, Oscar Vasquez, talked about how to select a real estate broker. Only about 2% are actually full time. He also gave a brief overview of the real estate market.

Then Lion Don Greenberg from the Ventura Downtown Lions talked about City of Hope. There is a newly created honorary membership that can be given to Lions in the name of Past International President Kay Fukushima. A club or individuals can donate $1,500 in the name of a Lion and the money will go toward the Lions Family Center at City of Hope. Lions have committed to raise $1 million for the new center. There isn't a better cause. For those of use who have had to be operated on at City of Hope (including Lion Don and Lion BE Toby SCOTT) have made pests of themselves talking about how much better CoH is than any other hospital we have had the misfortune of visiting.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL has Free Fines so he if he remembers, he can be late with impunity. Lion Dick MAGGIO is our Greeter. How is your Italian? Lion IVP Todd ADAMS was here when his name was called so he'll pocket the $5 Attendance Prize if he manages to make it today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion EC

John FARRAR had a serious brain fart. Rather than having Lion Carlos MARTINEZ draw for him, he tried it himself, with predictable results. Our $262 is safe for another week.

Pt. Mugu Airshow

We are going to need a lot of help in two weeks time. We are committed to manning a souvenir booth at the Pt. Mugu Airshow on both Saturday and Sunday. We are required to have 7 people there from 7 AM to 5 PM. Some of us have volunteered for all day on one of the days, but if we had two shifts of 7 people for 2 days, we'd need 28 volunteers, which is more than our total active membership.

If you have spouses, kids, friends who might want to become Noontimers when they see how much fun we have, then invite them and let Lion Dave TAPIE know. We really need the manpower.
