Our Special Guest today is Bud Harley, CEO of Pacific Camps and a member of the Strawberry Festival board. He's going to present some ideas of what we could do to earn some money at the Strawberry Festival this year, May 21-22.

Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS reports he has a speaker, but your BE doesn't know who it might be. We'll find out who it is next week.

Last Week

Jon Belanger, Director of Business Development for Axianta, dropped by to talk about money, investing and some of the new products on the market that have no risk but do have some potential to capture gains in the market. Interesting ideas, without a huge financial commitment. .

Lion Will BERG has Free Fines, while Lion BE Toby SCOTT is our Greeter. Lion Will also qualified for the $30 Attendance Prize. Should he deign to show up today, he'll be that much richer. We only have 4 marbles left, so Lion Carlos MARTINEZ had work overtime to jinx Lion Dave GOSNELL and thwart his attempt to glom onto our $347. Loser!

Elections

We should have had our slate of officers for next year posted in today's Bulletin, but unfortunately, we don't have a slate complete yet. Once again, Noontimers are going to be late sending a list of our elected officers to the District. No wonder we are such a pariah.

District Convention

For the past 6 years the District Convention has been held in Santa Maria and we haven't attended in force, and hence have not participated in the Food Fair or Hospitality Room.

This year the convention will be held in Ventura. We are pretty much duty-bound to participate, just as the northern clubs have been doing for quite a while.

Do we want to cook or prepare something for the Food Fair on Saturday at Noon? Or perhaps we could have a Friday evening hospitality room. At the Channel Islands Visitation, there was talk of joining forces — perhaps with them cooking on Saturday and some of us helping serve and us hosting a hospitality room. Something to think about — and start planning now.

What is the pleasure of our club? We need to start planning now.

Strawberry Festival

We have an opportunity to host an activity at the Strawberry Festival on May 21-22. Our Guest Speaker, But Harley, will be presenting ideas on how we might make some money. Pay attention.
