This week

Our Special Guest today is Kat Marrick from Totally Local VC, who will be speaking about sourcing local and their efforts to help the displaced by the fires.

Next week

Nothing planned yet.

Last Week

It was the last Friday of the year and an open meeting.

Winners

We had such a small turnout for the last meeting on December 22, that we didn't sell tickets or hold a drawing. So, apparently we are repeating the winners from December 8, which are . . .

On the December 8 meeting Lion Sig ASKVIK received Free Fines for today while Lion Dean KATO is our Greeter. Lion Jim PLISKY wasn't here (when is he ever?) so didn't win the $5 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Victor GALLARDO was unable to grab the white orb amongst the zillion other marbles. No problem, it was only worth $106.

Christmas Party

We essentially broke even. We will need to work harder next year.

Future Events

We should be working on the Student Speakers Contest at this time, so we can have speakers for a contest early in February. So far, your BE is unaware if anyone is doing anything. Do we even have the packet from MD-4 yet? We were supposed to get it in October.

After that, there is nothing on the calendar. We need events or the club will die. Is anyone awake enough to plan something?

Does Anyone Read The Bulletin?

So many Noontimers were confused about the holiday meeting schedule that your BE wondered why he writes this damn thing. The schedule has been printed at every meeting; if you can't get to a meeting or forgot to take a copy, it is online; I send a link via email to each Bulletin so you don't even have to remember that our domain is www.noontimers.org (is that really too hard???)

Half the club texts incessantly but apparently only reads email sporadically, while the other half ignores texts and only reads email. There has to be some way we can all communicate better.

One of the reasons we haven't held a Bored meeting for so long is that half the Bored doesn't receive the notice of the meeting as it is only sent via text OR email and no one reads the Bulletin.
