This week

Our Special Guest is the son of a former President of the Noontimers — and he still isn't special. He is our very own Lion Dean KATO, who will be talking about the Strawberry Festival — it's organization and workings.

Next week

Amazing. We have a program for next week. Damon de la Cruz from the Cypress College of Mortuary Science will be here to regale us with all the comedy that comes out of "the business."

Last Week

Chris Ryan of Chris Ryan Photography came by to show us some of his beautiful photographs and talk about his work with the Rancho Ventura Conservation, especially after the Thomas Fire.

He invited us to sign up for hikes to the two trees above Ventura. He says it is less than an hour hike and the vista is fantastic.

Winners

Lion D Ross OLNEY managed to win Free Fines, but the rest of the winning went to Lion T Tim TENOPIR. He is our Greeter, won the Attendance drawing (but the Treasurer didn't know how much was in the kitty) and then he won the winning ticket for the Mad Marble Malarkey. He had no idea how much money he lost by grabbing the wrong marble. At least we had enough members attending to hold a drawing.

Strawberry Festival

We will be serving hot links at the Strawberry Festival May 19—20. If hot links work out for the Strawberry Festival, we can do the same thing for the Salsa Festival.

So far, we have only three people who have passed food handling. That won't be enough to get through two full days. So, please a few more sign up for one of the next two classes.

The food handling classes are scheduled for the first Wednesday of each month at the Government Center, 800 S. Victoria, Room 344 (third floor), from 9 AM to Noon. Warning: the doors close at exactly 9 AM. If you arrive at 9:01 you won't get in. Be early. Here are the dates:
