This week

Our Special Guest today is Nancy Lindholm, CEO of the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce. She is here to bring us up-to-date on the goings on in Oxnard.

Next week

Melanie Salvesen Jackson from the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute will be here to talk about the library and foundation.

And for good measure, the week after Stuart Long, husband of Supervisor Kathy Long, will be here talking about the activities with Ventura County Search and Rescue — probably activities surrounding the Thomas Fire.

Last Week

It was an open meeting — except that Lion Will BERG was able to attend and brought us up-to-date on happenings with the City of Port Hueneme, especially with regard to marijuana. And then he talked about transportation issues in Southern California. As usual, Lion Will's discussions are always interesting and timely.

Winners

Lion IPP Pat RIGGS has Free Fines, while Lion Victor GALLARDO is our Greeter. Lion T Tim TENOPIR won the Attendance Prize, which might have been worth $10 or a different value when the Treasurer gets on the ball and figures out how much he should receive. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Ross OLNEY lost his attempt to pilfer an undisclosed amount of money (see comments about Attendance Prize).

Strawberry Festival

We will be serving hot links at the Strawberry Festival May 19—20. If hot links work out for the Strawberry Festival, we can do the same thing for the Salsa Festival.

We are short of food handlers. Please sign up for the class next Wednesday morning. Otherwise a couple of Noontimers are going to have to go all day without bathroom breaks. That won't be pretty.

The food handling classes are scheduled for the first Wednesday of each month at the Government Center, 800 S. Victoria, Room 344 (third floor), from 9 AM to Noon. Thanks to Lions S Sal GONZALEZ, Dave TAPIE, Byron WEDEMEYER and BE Toby SCOTT for attending the April meeting. The last class before the Festival will be on May 2. We now have 7 people qualified, which means that we'll need two qualified people at all times for bathroom breaks, etc. It's still a bit thin. Could a couple more take the May class?

Election

OK, boys and girls. This is it: the third and final list of candidates for officers for the 2018-19 Lion year. What a crappy list of candidates. We are in serious trouble. But it's what we got.
