Our Special Guest today is Bonnie Atmore from the Rancho Ventura Conservation Trust. She is going to be talking about the effects of the Thomas Fire, the rebuilding project and what is happening with the Two Trees.

Nothing yet.

Jeff Maulhardt from the Oxnard Farm Park informed a bunch of Noontimers about a project we had never heard of. Along with it he spent a lot of time talking about the history of Oxnard and showed pictures of old farm equipment, the old buildings on site and volunteers working on projects (project days are Tuesdays and Saturdays). We had tons of questions. We should probably schedule a visitation.

Sometimes drawings are horribly unfair. Lion Dean KATO had his name drawn for the $10 Attendance Prize. Unfortunately, he will be setting up our booth at the Strawberry Festival and won't be at the meeting. How fair is it to miss out on the drawing while working on Noontimer business?

Tomorrow and Sunday are the big days. Be sure to show up on time. We are going to need all the manpower we can assemble.
