This week

Unfortunately, it will be an open meeting.

Next week

Your Program Chair, Lion IVP/BE Toby SCOTT, is trying to get his act together and start having regular speakers. So far, no luck.

Last Week

A friend of Lion Victor GALLARDO, Martin Gonzalez, stopped by to talk about why many Latinos don't go to college. He talked about mindset and how his brothers and sisters didn't know you could go directly to a 4 year college. He's the only one who went to college and now he's finishing up his PhD. He also read a part of a chapter of "21 Miles of Scenic Beauty . . . and then Oxnard." We had to cut off the meeting and many Noontimers stayed after to talk to him. Excellent program.

We had barely enough attendees to hold a raffle, but we didn't. Good thing, the speaker went way long.

Parking is scarce so try the shuttle from Oxnard High.

We Need Projects

We are starting on planning the Banana Festival, but that cannot be this Summer's only activity. Anyone have ideas? Lion BE Toby SCOTT suggested an evening with spouses and significant others at Levity Live. In order to qualify for the package deals, we need 10 attendees. If you are interested, please let Lion Toby know.

We Serve Food Sunday

We had a signup sheet last week for the Oxnard High School food booth for the Copyboys practice.
