This week

We have no program today. But next week . . .

Next Week

Lion PID Howard Hudson will perform his duty of installing this year's (Lion year ends June 30). As an added treat Lion will present his history of the bugle program. We are in for a rare treat.

Last Week

Lieutenant Colonel Vijay M. G. Navarro, a Politico-Military Affairs Officer (and also daughter of proud Papa, Lion TT Victor Gallardo) was here to talk about her experience in the Army. Having flown helicopters in combat as well as drug interdiction in Central America she had tons of fascinating stuff to impart. Great program.

Winners

Lion D Pat RIGGS hsd Free Fines, while Lion Byron WEDENEYER is our Greeter. Lion BE Toby SCOTT won the Attendance Prize, but the Treasurer will have to tell him how much he won. He will also have tell Lion S Sal (Sol) GONZALEZ how much he won in the Mad Marble Malarkey.

We Are Serving Beer

If you don't have a Responsible Beverage permit, you need one. It's going to be "all hands on deck" for the 10 days of the Fair.

Lion S Sal GONZALEZ got two dates for Responsible Beverage Training: Tuesday, 7/23 and Thursday, 7/25 both at 5:30. Sign up for one, please.

Installation

It's set for next week, July 26. The installing officer no less than Past International Director Lion Howard Hudson. In addition to his installation duties, Lion Howard will present his program on bugling. He presented this about a dozen years ago and several Noontimers expressed a desire to hear it again and some new Noontimers thought it sounded interesting and wanted to hear it.

The program/Installation will be at our regular meeting, but Guests are invited. Ask them. You won't regret it.
