This Week

No program. That your BE is aware of.

Next Week

No speaker yet.

Last Week

Lion T Tim TENOPER gave a program on solar cookers and other new outdoor utensils. Most of us don't keep up with the latest, so this was eye-opening.

Winners

We held a drawing buy as your BE wasn't there and no one posted the results, it isn't in here.

Student Speaker Contest

It's set for February 18 — in two weeks. We need at least another judge, unless someone got one and didn't post it in chat. We need the bigger room, if we can finagle it for judges, speakers (2), teacher and parents. Noontimers need to be aware that they will be asked to sit with guests, time the speeches and watch the door that people don't enter during a speech.

Strawberry Festival

We don't know if there will be a Festival. They are not taking applications for beer booths or food sites. Lion Dean KATO will let us know. The Banana Festival may also be on, we'll see.

We need more projects, so if someone sees anything, let us know.
