Last Week - No Speaker

Since it was the last week of the month there was no speaker. We did have a lot of good jokes and plenty of Christmas cheer. Lion Toby thanked everyone who helped with the Christmas Party. Everyone agreed it was a good time with great food.

Lion Toby was asked by several members how Magician Prines stole the shirt off his back. Lion Toby told the group it was MAGIC!!!!!!!

Happy New Year To Everyone

May this coming year bring everyone and their families joy and peace. We all have a lot to be thankful for in our lives.

Speaking of a project, we thought everyone might want to know some of the groups the Noontimers and Lions donate to on a regular basis. Here's partial list:

- Braille Institute
- City of Hope
- Lions Club International Foundation (LCIF)
- Western Lions Ear Foundation
- Guide Dogs of America
- Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc.

Some organizations we have donated to in the past include:
Food Share (125 lbs. delivered from the Christmas Party)
Oxnard Public Library (Vision Impaired Reading Room)
Oxnard School District and Oxnard High School

We also do direct aid. Lion Barry Braff (Dr. Braff, Optometrist) provides glasses to students who cannot afford them. The club pays for an average of two per month.

This past year we provided the chair lift for a child with Duchen's Muscular Disease and helped the Channel Islands Lions donate a mobile home to a family in Port Hueneme.

Not bad guys. Let's keep it up in 2008!

Toby's Bits and Bytes

A new year and new energy for the Club.

President Lion Toby Scott

The party took an interesting turn when Lion Andy and Lion Bobby started to entertain the crowd.

Will and Becky Berg smiling as usual!

Winners

FREE FINES: Lion Jim Plisky
 GREETER: Lion Toby Scott
 ATTENDANCE: Lion Bobby's number was drawn. Let's see if he wins this week. $20 will buy your lunch.
 LOTTO: Lions Dave Gosnell and Will Berg were the lotto winners.

Marble Malarkey

Lion Jim Plisky tried his luck to pick the lucky marble but was not so lucky. What's the pot up to this week? I think we're all waiting for that huge jackpot.

Photos For Party

Since we didn't have photos of the Christmas Party at our last meeting, you're going to get quite a few this week. No formal pictures were taken...just ones where everyone was enjoying themselves. Sorry, the shirt trick with Lion Toby happened so fast that a camera couldn't catch it!
