This week

We aren't well enough organized to actually know what's going to happen at today's meeting. We will be working on the Christmas Party preparations. Other than that . . .

Last week

It was open. The surprise is that as the last Friday of the month, it was supposed to be open.

Next week

Hopefully, we'll get organized well enough to know what's happening next week. So far, nothing's happening.

Berg's Beggings

Last push for the Christmas Party. Everyone please show up. We need a good turnout. If you have a guest or two who wants to attend, we can probably still accommodate. Just let the committee know today.

Winners

Lion Jeff NORRIS has Free Fines today, while Lion Bedford PINKARD is our Greeter. Lion P Will BERG was unable to grab the correct marble and missed his shot at $174. Lion D Dick MAGGIO had his name called, so if he shows he'll be $5 richer. He would have had more, but Lion D Todd REHANEK pocketed his $10 from the week before.

Broken Glass

At White Cane Daze, Lion C Andy STAY dropped one of the glass White Cane jars and broke it all over the front of Von's. Lion

Flood Victims

At our last Bored meeting, our club donated $500.00 to D1 / Boquete Leones relief for flood (Nov 2008) victims of Chiriqui and Bocas del Toro. The Boquete Leones (Lions) are friends of Lion S Ev BATEY. Whole villages were wiped out by the floods and LCIF has been slow delivering aid (probably due to the bureaucracy of the local district and not International). Lion Ev will give a report today, but our money went to a wonderful cause.

Other than the top picture of Lion Andy breaking glass, the pictures are from past Christmas Parties. Everyone get in the mood.
