This week

Today is the last meeting of the year. It is open. Do not show up on the day after Christmas or the day after New Years.

Last week

Bonnie Weigel, President/CEO of Food Share, dropped by to talk about the challenge of taking over leadership of the organization. They provide food for more than 100 agencies and with the deteriorating economy are starting to see once middle-class people who need assistance.

With supermarkets cutting down on inventory leading to expired goods, farmers allowing only a day or two for gleaning between crops and other reductions in donated food, Food Share is more in need of help than ever.

Lion Byron WEDEMEYER has been on the board for 6 years and is going off now. He has provided un-

Noontimerly excellent leadership. Congratulations on a job well done.

Next week

Have a wonderful Christmas and fabulous New Year.

Berg's Beggings

Your Bulletin Editor has written Lion P Will BERG's beggings for three weeks. It's about time he helped out.

Plea For Help

Lion 1VP Dave TAPIE still needs help finding quality programs. If you know of any, please let him know.

Lion BE Toby has asked for help, but not received much. Hopefully, we will start to get some new pictures and someone will actually send some information for inclusion on these pages.

St. John's Memorial Service

Several Noontimers attended the tree-lighting ceremony for the St. John's Cancer Center honoring Lion C Andy STAY's brother-in-law, Kooros Parsa. We donated $1,000 in honor of fallen Noontimers, Karl DAME and Irv TUCKER.

It was a very nice service. We have the Christmas tree ornaments with their names on them.

Winners

Lion Chris PACHANA ducked out early last week, so naturally, his name was drawn for the $5 Attendance Prize. Lion D Ross OLNEY has Free Fines today, while Lion Bobby MULLINS (remember him???) is our Greeter. Our Secretary, Lion Ev BATEY, didn't write down who drew for the $186 Mad Marble Malarkey, but whomever it was whiffed. Your BE seems to recall that the loser might have been Lion Bobby MULLINS (remember him???).

Christmas Party Report

None yet.
