This week

Our Special Guest today is neither special nor a guest. Lion LT Ross OLNEY is going to talk to us about flying C-47's during the Korean Conflict (not a War).

Lion Ross has given this program to several service clubs and has decided that it is finally ready to inflict upon Noontimers.

Last week

It was open, as scheduled.

Next week

At last week's meeting, Lion 1VP Jim PLISKY told your BE that he had a program for the 12th, and would let him know what it was. Here it is at 11 AM on Friday and your BE is still in the dark.

Winners

Lion IPP Will BERG has Free Fines, while Lion LT Ross OLNEY is our Greeter. That's a first. Our speaker is also our greeter. Lion C Andy wasn't here when his name was called for the Attendance Prize, so he won't be $20 richer even if he makes it today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Todd REHANEK set up his usual bivouac at the marble bag with the usual result. He didn't win the $325.50.

Strawberry Festival

We got the damn margarita booth again. Prepare to slush up and have people mad at us.

But, at least we got a booth. Thanks to Lions TT Dick MAGGIO and LT Ross OLNEY for going to the drawing and securing a place.

Elections

Today is the second posting of the candidates for office for the 2010-2011 Lions year. They have all been certified by our illustrious elections committee and are willing to serve. We will publish the candidates for one more week and then have our elections on March 19. If anyone wants to run against these great candidates, you have one more week to announce.
