This week

If you are the guest speaker today, please accept a sincere Noontimer apology. We should have your name, subject and qualifications listed here, but someone forgot to inform the Bulletin Editor.

Last week

Lion LT Ross OLNEY decided it was time to come clean and talk about dropping North Korean and Chinese soldiers into North Korea during the Korean conflict.

He was a radio officer on a C-47 and managed to sneak in an extra mission — so he flew 101 missions at low altitudes while dropping leaflets and infiltrators while telling the nice Chinese soldiers that if they surrendered they'd be treated well.

See notification for This Week.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL has Free Fines, so, would the TT please make sure to fine him for coming in late BEFORE he has a chance to read the Bulletin. Strange situation with our Greeter today. The winner of the drawing was a guest, Jim Szatkowski, but he took an application with him, so he could be approved at the meeting and be a legit greeter.

Lion 2VP Tom CONTRARES was here when his number was called, so he'll enrich himself by $25 if he shows today. But that isn't the big payout: Lion MC Mike PLISKY finally got his money back on all those tickets he'd been purchasing and won the $352 Mad Marble Malarkey prize.

Strawberry Festival

We are going to need nearly everyone for the Strawberry Festival. Please mark your calendars and keep free the weekend of May 15-16. We'll need you.

Also, please check your Beverage card. They are good for three years. If yours has expired, you'll need to attend the Responsible Beverage Serving class.
