two programs without knowing it. The good news is that we kept it in the family.

Lion Sig ASKVIK did the first program showing an off-road accident and rescue of a woman who tried to go down a hill she shouldn't have and without seat belts, to boot. Lion Sig was supposed to be in the car, but she told him to take pictures from outside. Good thing.

And then Lion D Roman VAISMAN showed what should have been an accident, but wasn't. He and his two friends turned an old junker into a racing car. The first part of the video showed the $250 car they purchased and rebuilt, but most of the video was them passing cars on race tracks around here. Exciting stuff.

Winners

Lion D George THOMPSON was here when his name was called, so if he shows today he'll pocket the $25 Attendance Prize.

Lion MC Mike PLISKY has Free Fines (doesn't he look pleased to be a winner?) and Lion Chuck CONWAY will be our Greeter. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion LT Ross OLNEY tried for $141, but he is just too old to make it any more (and he looks nearly as pleased as Lion Mike).

Bored Meeting

Let's see. For the regularly scheduled Bored meeting on March 31, Lion D Todd REHANEK got sick, so the meeting was rescheduled for this past Wednesday, April 7. So the Bored got sick of seeing each other and postponed the meeting until the regular date for this month — April 28. Wonder who will get sick then.

Beverage Classes

If your Responsible Beverage license has expired, you need to take another class in order to pour at this year's Strawberry Festival. Here are the dates for the classes — you have to make reservations with our Chairman, Lion BE Toby SCOTT, and he has to send the list in. If a class is filled up, you need to reschedule. They aren't kidding about this, so don't mess up.
