This week

Today we are meeting a day early (Thursday) to meet our only Lifetime Lion Noontimer, Loyal FRAZIER. Lion Loyal has been undergoing dialysis on Fridays and is unable to attend meetings on Friday. He has earned his 55 year monarch pin and we decided to move the club date so we could give him the pin, honor him for his many (55) years of service and give him a bad time in a Noontimerly fashion.

Break out your stories. It's time to let him have it.

Last week

Lion PDG Howard Hudson dropped by to talk about taps. About horns, traditions, melodies, etc. Great talk, lots of questions and no one complained when it ran long.

Next week

Next week (at the regular Friday time and date) we have Brian Critchley from Agromin in Camarillo coming to speak. Agromin makes great soil products and concentrates in manufacturing Recycled Green Waste in a Safe Organic and Scientific manner.

Winners

Lion D Roman VAISMAN picked up his $10 Attendance Prize, so Lion Bobby MUL-LINS only missed $5 by not making it. Lion Ryan ALT-HOFF has Free Fines today and Lion Dave GOSNELL is our Greeter. Wonder if he'll make it in time to greet anyone? In the Mad Marble Marlarkey someone drew for $220 and presumably lost. The Secretary's report left the name and result blank. Presumably, had someone won, his name would have been recorded.

Strawberry Festival

We have received the $1,800 from the Strawberry Festival (they didn't send it to the wrong location twice like last year) and have about $550 in tips (not yet counted). Good job everyone.

'Tis the Season

No, not that season. July 1 starts the new Lion year. In June we should have our installation. As far as the Bored knows, we have no date yet. Even for Noontimers, this is late.

We also need to have an installation as well as a new member breakfast soon. We have three new members who have had no induction or greeting.

Starting July 1, it is visitation season. We should be planning visitations to the warm-weather clubs: Carpinteria and El Rio. Both meet outside in the summer and are best visited then.

Our incoming 1VP, Lion Tom CONTRERAS should already be planning speakers for his term.

Our outgoing P, Lion Dave TAPIE, should be getting his awards for service to the club and ready the Lion of the Year award. Typically, the Lion of the Year receives Life Membership in the Western Lions Ear Foundation, which was co-founded by Lion PDG Hugh CRAWFORD, a Noontimer, and Lion PDG Capp Loughboro of the Ventura Breakfast Club, whose funeral is tomorrow. Doing this right would be a nice gesture.

Bored Report

We are considering holding the Christmas Party at the Tower Club. An alternative would be holding it at Food Share. Food Share is nowhere nearly as elegant, but would be hugely cheaper. If anyone has suggestions, please let a Bored member know.
