This week

Our Special Guest today is none other than former Supervisor John Flynn, who is here to talk about what it's like not to be Supervisor and if he's going to run again.

Heck, now that he's not a Supervisor, perhaps it is time to take the big step, get a big promotion and become a Noon-timer!

Last week

No speaker. Weak jokes.

Next week

It's the first week of the new Lions year, so who knows what Lion soon-to-be 1VP Tom CONTRERAS has in store for us. Given that the meeting hits the beginning of the 4th of July weekend, attendance will probably be light so perhaps it best not to have a speaker.

Winners

Lion 2VP Tom CONTRE-RAS wasn't here two weeks ago when his name was called for the Attendance Prize, so he didn't collect $5 by showing last week. But then, his name was called for the second week in a row and he was there this time, so today he'll pocket $10 if he manages to make it. Lion Tim TENOPIR has Free Fines, while Lion LT Ross OLNEY is our Greeter.

Small, Personal Note

Lion Ilona Scott, wife of Lion BE Toby SCOTT, will be inducted this Sunday as President of the Ventura Downtown Lions Club. As Lion Ilona is definitely NOT good Noontimer material, the Ventura Downtown Lions are in good hands.

did go to the mailbox, there was no ticket stub. So, we should have the drawing today at our meeting. Someone will go home with $1,000.

Bored Meeting

Next Wednesday, June 30 is our last Bored Meeting of the year. Both the outgoing and incoming Boreds are supposed to attend. All Noontimers are invited to attend.

One item of business will be to decide how to help former Noontimer Dr. Howard Fox.

Another will be planning for the Installation. So far, we have no installing officer, program or much of anything else. With the event less than three weeks away, it's probably about Noontimer time.

Pistol Raffle

Lion Chris PACHANA has sold all the tickets for the pistol raffle. We could have had the raffle last week, but decided to wait a week because one ticket was supposed to have been mailed in and no one bothered to go to the mailbox. But when we
